In only fifty years, the patriotic society of theatre dilettantes grew into a genuine Slovenian theatre. Today, the Slovenian theatre, called by the author of the first Slovenian book on theatre, Josip Nolli, “the grandest invention of human spirit”, is a vibrant and frisky place of open, spirited, creative dialogue and artistic lustre, addresses the future, responding to the present and preserving the past. It is an innovative learning environment offering flexible form of learning for the community and individual. It is a place of freedom, exchange and integration. This Slovenian theatre unites, inspires and builds, conveying a surplus of spirit. The brochure We are the theatre comprises information on Slovenian professional theatres – on its public institutions, non-governmental organizations and as well professional associations in the field of Slovenian performing arts. It includes their basic contacts and a brief introduction. We are theatre – get to know us!

A short description of the performance:
The Seagull, one of the most frequently performed texts by Anton Pavlovich Chekhov, is the play, with its subtly expressed experiences of love and jealousy, illumination of the banality of the famous and the melancholy of the unsuccessful, presenting the generational conflicts and the feeling of no perspectives is challenging and forever topical; but binding us it inspires as a classical text with its core question about the point of art. The performance was directed by Paolo Magelli, an internationally renowned director.
